Pelletreau's American Families, p. 505

Deacon James Norton marr. 1717, Anna Goldsmith, b. Southwold 1698, daughter of John & Anna (Wills) Goldsmith, and grand-dau. of John Goldsmith, early settler of Southampton, & after 1678. of Southwold. This statement open to doubt.

Query A-5022

In Boston Transcript, June 3, 1939, under initials L.G.T.V., I find the following query:

"In Southold, N.Y. sometime after 1700 appears Joseph Goldsmith, blacksmith. He had married children by 1725, and died 1736, having had at least four wives. Can anyone identify Joseph and his wives?" Was he Joseph Goldsmith of Newport, R.I., 1707?

Bristol, R.I., vital records (see N. E. Reg. v. 34) gives the following:
Aug. 11, 1700, bapt. Sarah, dau. of Mr. Goldsmith of Newport; his wife being a member of one of the churches of Christ in Boston."

Further details of this family wanted.

On Aug. 12, 1714, Samuel Bushnell of Saybrook sold land in Saybrook to Joseph Goldsmith of Newport, blacksmith (Saybrook Rec.)

On Oct. 21, 1675, Thomas Goldsmith, late of Southampton, now of Seabrook, in Conn., sells 21 acres to Joseph Remes of Southampton (L.I. Rec.) Was this Thomas the father of Joseph of Newport, the blacksmith?

Reply to A-5022 Aug 25, 1955

Capt. Joseph Goldsmith is understood to have been a nephew of Thomas Goldsmith of Southold, L.I., who d. 1706. Capt. Joseph came to Southold much later than Thomas, probably about 1715-19. He had children bapt. Newport, R.I. 1699 & 1701, and was freeman there in 1707. His wife there was Rebecca —. His dau. Mary marr.
Newport, 1715, Richard Dickinson, Mary being b. 1696, d. 1763.
Joseph bought land in 1719, in Mattituck, L.I. (Southold Town Records). All of above furnished to me without references,

Capt. Joseph's will (ref. Pelletreau) dated 1734; he d. 1735; marr. Jan. 1775 Hannah Mapes, widow of Jabez (ref. Sackett-Mapes Gen.). Will names son Josias & dau. Rebecca Goldsmith, Mary Dickinson, Hannah Case, Elizabeth Corwin. He had probably also William & Joseph.

John (1) Goldsmith of Southold had a brother Thomas (ref. Pelletreau) John's son John (2) d. 1703. He marr 1st Patience Wines, marr 2nd Ann Wells, marr. 3rd after 1696 Elizabeth (Tuttle) Wells; had 6 sons & 2 daus. Was he father of Capt. Joseph who was b. probably about 1675? By Ann Wells he had Thomas, b. about 1693, marr. Abigail Booth (Ref. N. Y. S. Rec. Mag., Vol 22) (and Booth File); Mary, b. about 1694, marr. Chas. Booth (same ref.)

By Elizabeth (Tuttle) Wells had

Nathaniel

Daniel

Elizabeth (Ref. Southold Town Records, Pelletreau). Further

data on Capt. Joseph wanted.

Goldsmith.

Capt. Joseph Goldsmith, marr. Elizabeth —, probably at Newport, R.I. He was very possibly son of John Goldsmith who was at Southampton, L.I. about 1651. This John Goldsmith was probably the apprentice of Philip Drinker of Charlestown, Mass., who mentions him in his will 1647.

John (2) Goldsmith called Thomas Goldsmith uncle in 1679.

John (1) probably died in Southampton April 1703. Children of John (1), wife unknown, were probably.

1. John, marr 1679, Prudence Vines & had son

John b. 1680.

2. James, d. 1701

3. Thomas, d. 1706, marr. 1693, Bethia Terry, b. 1672.

4. Mary.

5. Zaccheus, d. 1707

6. Richard.

7. Joseph, marr. Elizabeth above.

Probably another daughter.

Early records have been confused on the various John Goldsmiths, and are difficult to interpret, as they are brief and scanty. However, that John (1) Goldsmith was brother of Thomas (1) Goldsmith who d. at Killingworth, Conn., after 1681 is proved by Southampton Records 6:44 21 May 1709 John Goldsmith of Southold confirmed land to Thomas Cooper, stating "whereas Thomas Goldsmith, deceased, great uncle of said John Goldsmith did during his life sell to Thomas Cooper" etc. This John (3) Goldsmith is son of John (2) who had married 1679 Prudence Vines
